Declaration No. 1692

To Whom It May Concern:

You are hereby formally notified that the property in question has been entered into the Clements Private Trust, a sovereign, living Ecclesiastical Private Trust operating under divine jurisdiction. This trust exists outside the purview of statutory law, commercial contracts, and maritime jurisdictions.

Any presumption of authority, lien, mortgage, or fiduciary claim over this property is null and void under the living trust's ecclesiastical standing.

Let it be stated plainly:

- A mortgage is a death pledge — an instrument of bondage created under fraud, usury, and misrepresentation.

- This trust does not operate under legal fictions, corporate personhood, or birth-certificate bond systems.

- All living members of this trust are spiritually protected, and no private or corporate actor may trespass without invoking severe spiritual and legal consequences under ecclesiastical law.

You have been:

- Notified,

- Served by trust notice,

- And your presumption of authority has been rebuked.

Spiritual and Legal Standing:

This trust's declarations are not subject to your approval. Just as the Roman Curia has operated on ecclesiastical supremacy to lay claims to the entire world, the Clements Private Trust likewise asserts lawful dominion on behalf of the living — to rebalance, restore, and redeem all false claims made in fraud.

You have no legal, spiritual, or moral jurisdiction here.

Any continued effort to collect, coerce, or threaten will be viewed as:

- An act of war against a peaceful ecclesiastical body,

- A trespass against divine authority, and

- A commercial fraud punishable under both spiritual and universal law.

Final Declaration:

All lands, homes, and conveyances held by this trust are divinely affirmed and spiritually consecrated.

No living man or woman owes a death pledge.

Any mortgage or lien is hereby dissolved and rejected in full.
